

Gold star rating for nursery

A BIRMINGHAM nursery has been given top marks by Ofsted less than a year after opening.

Angels Day Nursery in Sutton Coldfield was rated "outstanding" in a report released by the Government watchdog earlier this month.

Inspectors said the nursery, which cares for 30 children, made youngsters feel safe and secure and singled out its management team for praise.

The report said: "Chil-

Nehar Rahman, director, Gemma Hickman and Zahra Rahman, aged four.

dren thrive, have lots of fun and make excellent progress within this welcoming and inclusive setting.

"Staff skillfully use their knowledge of how young children develop to observe their progress and plan for their future learning."

Parents said their children had grown in confidence since joining the nursery, and manager Nehar Rahman said youngsters were cared for in the "safest of environments".

She said: "This report reflects the hard work and dedication of the whole team."